University of South Dakota, Vermillion.

Bulletin No. 10.

June, 1895.

Non-Resident Examinations.

Until further notice be given, the University of South Dakota will furnish, to such schools as may apply therefor, examination papers in its preparatory subjects, upon the following terms and conditions:

1. The superintendent or principal of the school must inform the President of the University, at least four weeks prior to the time of holding the examination, of the subjects in which he desires question papers and of the number of pupils to be examined in each.

2. The answers must be written on one side of paper of legal cap size, the left-hand margin left blank for binding at the University.

3. The superintendent or principal must certify that the following conditions have been fulfilled as to all the papers:

- (a) that the pupils were so seated as not to be able to overlook one another's work;

- (b) that all books and means of reference were removed from the desks on which the answer papers were written;

3 0112 105933474

(c) that communication by the pupils with one another or with other persons was not permitted during the examination;

(d) that a teacher (preferably the superintendent or principal) was present during the whole time of examination;

(e) that each examination paper was finished at a single session without recess or other interruption;

(f) that no explanation of the papers was given the pupils except the correction of manifest errors (and such correction shall be described in the report to the University);

(g) that all papers in a given subject were written at the same time;

(h) that the envelope containing the examination questions was not opened until the pupils were ready to begin writing.

4. The University reserves the right to have a representative of its own appointment present at any examination thus held.

5. The superintendent or principal or other teacher shall mark the papers on a scale to be furnished by the University, rejecting those marked less than 75 per cent., and sending others to the President of the University. The pupil whose paper in a given subject shall, after revision of the markings at the University, be graded at not less than 75 per cent., shall receive credit therefor on the records of the University, and a certificate of such credit shall be issued. Such credit and certificate shall be accepted in lieu of a further examination in the same subject if the pupil apply for admission to the University within four years from the date of the certificate.

Address all communications concerning the examinations
